Dreſden, January 15. N. S.

THE King of Poland came hither this Morning, accompanied by the Count de Lagnaſco, in the ſame Chaiſe, and one ſingle Page that attended his Majeſty on Horſeback: The Thaw ſurpriz'd the reſt of his Retinue, who were upon the Road from Berlin, ſo that their Sledges were render'd uſeleſs, and they are detain'd till the Arrival of Coaches to purſue the reſt of their Journey. Count Fleming deſigns to ſtay ſome few Days longer at the Court of Berlin. Mr. Scott, Envoy from Her Majeſty of Great Britain to King Auguſtus, is arriv'd here.

Dreſden, January 19. N. S. The Biſhop of Cujava has fully adjuſted the Differences that have continued a great while between the Great-General and the Under-General of Poland, and they have been publickly Reconciled in the Preſence of many of the Nobility. We have Advice from Muſcovy, that the General Sieniecki, formerly Great Maiſter of the Artillery of Lithuania, afterwards taken Priſoner by the Czar, and ſent into Siberia, died there on the Twenty-ninth of November laſt. His Czariſh Majeſty has ſent Orders to his Miniſters at Moſcow, to attend him at Riga, where a Council is to be held about ſome important Affairs. The Hereditary Prince and Princeſs of Muſcovy are ſtill at Thorn, on the Viſtula; and it is ſaid, they deſign to paſs the Winter in that City. The Muſcovite Prince Dalgorouchi is now at Dreſden, and deſigns ſpeedily to ſet out for Carolsbad, to take the Benefit of thoſe Baths for the Recovery of his Health. Upon Sunday laſt Mr. Scott, Envoy from Her Majeſty of Great Britain, had his firſt private Audience of the King of Poland. His Poliſh Majeſty, before he left the Army in Pomerania, declar'd Count Fleming, Velt-Marſhal of his Saxon Troops; and has order'd Count Wackerbath to return to Vienna in the Quality of his Envoy to the Imperial Court. Letters from Lemberg in Poland, confirm that the Grand Vizier is degraded, and that the Aga of the Janizaries is made Grand Vizier for a time, and Meſſieurs Schappirow and Schermettow, the Muſcovite Hoſtages, are commited to the Seven Towers. Theſe Letters ſay likewiſe, that the Sultan, for Reaſons not yet made Publick, was much diſſatisfy'd with the Tartar Cham; and, that without the powerful and frequent Inſtances that had been made in his Favour, that Prince would have been taken into Cuſtody. It is ſaid, that the Muſcovites upon the Occaſion of the Abſence of the Cham of Tartary, had made an Incurſion into the Czerkaſy, and their Calmucks into the Crim Tartary, where they had laid waſte great Tracts of thoſe Countries, and carried off many of the Inhabitants, with a conſiderable Booty. The Hoſpodar of Moldavia, has taken a Turkiſh General Officer and two Captains of that Nation into Cuſtody, and ſent them Priſoners to Conſtantinople; but it was not yet known upon what Account.

Hamburgh, January 19. N. S. The Muſcovite Troops which were encamp'd about Dantzick are advanc'd even to the Works and Ditches of the Town, which has caused a great Conſternation in the Inhabitants, and obliged them themſelves under Arms, and mounted the Poſts aſſigned them by their Officers on the Ramparts, being univerſally reſolved to endure the utmoſt Extremity, rather than agree to the Payment of Seven hundred thouſand Crowns, which the Muſcovites pretend to demand of them. His Imperial Majeſty has declared Prince Erneſt de Bevern, Couſin-German to the Empreſs-Regent, to be Velt Marſhal and Governor of Sileſia. According to the laſt Advices from Moldavia, the King of Sweden remain'd ſtill at Bender, without any Mention being made of his Majeſty's Departure for his own Kingdom. The General Monſieur d'Urbanowitz was upon his Return from Bender, to the Troops which are poſted on the Frontiers, and had receiv'd a large Sum of Money to be diſtributed among them, according to the Orders of his Suediſh Majeſty. We have Letters likewiſe from Dantzick which tell us, that Monſieur the Great Treaſurer Prebendow had received an Expreſs from the Great General of the Crown, of the Thirtieth paſt, importing, that the Grand Vizir had been Coronation, which will be obſerv'd with great Solemnity. We hear from Dreſden, that the King of Poland was expected there on the Fifteenth of this Month; and, that the Repartition of Winter-Quarters for the Saxon Troops upon their Return from Pomerania, was already made; and the Eſtates of the Electorate ſummon'd to aſſemble at Dreſden on the Thirteenth of February, to deliberate of ſuch Propoſals as ſhould be laid before them by King Auguſtus. The Baron de Miltitz will accompany his Majeſty thither, being intruſted by him with the Care of conducting the Prince Electoral in the Travels he deſigns to make, which are variouſly reported here, ſome ſaying they are deſign'd for Italy, but others for Holland, during the time that the Conferences are held for a General Peace at Utrecht.

Whereas the Right Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer hath received a Letter ſign'd W. J. dated the 30th of January, 1711-12. Theſe are to give notice, That if the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter will attend his Lordſhip at the Treaſury, and make out what he has therein offered, he ſhall have all fitting Protection and Encouragement.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling Her Majeſty's Navy give Notice, That on Wedneſday the 6th of this Inſtant in the Forenoon, they ſhall be ready to treat with all ſuch Perſons as are willing to Contract for furniſhing Oxen for Sea Store, to be delivered at the Port of London.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England do hereby give Notice, That Books will be opened at the Bank on Tueſday the 12th Inſtant, at Nine in the Forenoon, for taking Subſcriptions for Twelve hundred thouſand Pounds, according to the Reſolutions of the General Court.

Theſe are to give Notice, that the Edgley Gally will be ready to Sail from Briſtol to New York, on the 10th Inſtant, Wind and Weather permitting, with the Mails of Letters for Her Majeſty's ſeveral Dominions on the Continent of America; and that Thurſday the 7th of this inſtant February will be the laſt Day for receiving Letters at the General Poſt-Office, to be ſent to the Continent by the ſaid Veſſel.
